Dear Corinna Schneider,

Thank you for your email. I apologise for the confusion. I can confirm that you are correct. For earlier articles, the Open Access information is not indicated as it should be, but they are still CC BY-NC-SA.

Kind regards,

published under a CC BY 3.0-License and all NJP-paper published before November 2012 are published under a CC BY-NC-SA 3.0-License.

We would like to (re-)publish NJP-papers from authors of Leibniz University Hannover in the noncommercial institutional repository (http://www.repo.uni-hannover.de), but some papers only have a copyright statement (©IOP) and no cc-license. Please see attached the paper from Colome-Tatche and for comparison another paper with cc-license.

Could you please verify, that all NJP-papers are open access according to the NJP copyright statement mentioned above, regardless of the (missing) copyright statement on some of the papers?

Thank you very much in advance!

Best regards,
Corinna Schneider
